Michael will enlighten, engage and entertain your audience so that your event is a SUCCESS!

For more than a decade, Dr. Michael Brenner, founder of IdeAgency, has helped busy leaders cultivate more effective teams, more creative cultures, and more productive employees. Michael's presentations and workshops engage and integrate both the intuitive, holistic "right brain" and the logical, analytical "left brain" to achieve optimal results for participants. His doctorate in Adult Learning and Leadership from Columbia University, masters degree in Adult and Organizational Development from Temple University and background in arts-based learning help his clients get better results quicker. They learn how to lead in a way that promotes high performance, morale, and trust with their people.

Michael has designed and taught courses in interpersonal relations, organizational behavior, and sociology at Immaculata University, La Salle University and Temple University. He is co-leader of the Consultants Forum Special Interest Group (SIG) for the Philadelphia chapter of ASTD. His article "Leadership is a Performing Art" was published in 2009 in the journal Leader to Leader. Michael was a featured speaker at the 2010 OD Network Conference in New Orleans, where he presented on arts-based learning.
